DETAILED ACTION

Receipt is acknowledged of the request for continued examination filed 10/12/2005. An information disclosure statement was also filed on this date.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 4, 15, 21 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claims 4, 21 and 27 set out that the does units are in the form of "discrete solid particles". However, the specification designates these particles as "nanoparticles" at page 34, paragraph 5. This term should be used in the claims in order to be consistent with the specification. Given the size set out in the independent claims, this designation would also more particularly point out the invention.

Claim 15 has a dosage range of "about 10 mg to about 1000 mg" which is not supported by the written description. At Page 21, the lowest dosage value appears to be 50 mg. Correction is requested.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 5, 22, and 28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are indefinite in that the wording makes it appear as though the particles are themselves tablets or capsules. Given the size of the particles this is not possible. It is therefore suggested that the wording of the specification at page 34, paragraph 6, should be used. The sentence would therefore read as "...nanoparticles (substituted for "solid particles" in view of the amendment requested above) which are formulated into tablets or capsules".

Guess et al is cited as a patent of interest in its disclosure of a cyclic neurokinin-1 receptor antagonist which may be formulated into tablets or capsules.

Claims 2, 6, 7, 13, 14, 19, 20, 23-26, 29-31 are in condition for allowance.
Corrections as cited above would place the application in condition for allowance.
